SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS RESPONSE TEAM

On May 18th SIRT completed a completed a mock scene training day. Several of us set a scene in an abandoned apartment and had the team complete it while senior members instructed. Of the 30 team members 25 attended and successfully located all the evidence and solved the “mock crime”

On May 28th SIRT was requested at a residence in Crestview where a toddler was found deceased. The scene was documented and evidence was collected while Campbell County Police conducted the investigation. The investigation is ongoing and waiting on Medical Examiner results.

On May 29th SIRT was requested for a possible fatal collision on I 471 in Newport. The scene was documented and evidence was collected while Newport Police conducted the investigation. The investigation was closed as it was determined there would be no criminal charges.

OFFICER RECOGNITION

Sergeant Nick Blank

Officer Zach Vance

Sergeant Nick Blank and Officer Zach Vance received an Officer Recognition via the Highland Heights Police Website.

Hello,

I want to share my sincere thanks for the assistance, Nicholas Blank and Zachary Vance offered to my wife and me recently!

My wife and I were involved in an accident last Saturday afternoon. Officers Blank and Vance responded to the scene. Fortunately, no one was injured in the 3-vehicle crash, but my wife and I were pretty shaken. Both were courteous and helpful to us. We had been visiting family in Indiana and were passing through the area as we headed back home to Michigan. Our vehicle was totaled, and they recognized that late on a Saturday afternoon it would be difficult to get our belongings from the tow yard. They directed the wrecker to stop at the police building so we could unload our belongings there until we obtained a rental. They helped us find an open rental facility and waited until the Uber arrived. They even got water for our dog.

My wife and I are so impressed with their courteousness and helpfulness! A difficult situation was made much easier because of them. We really appreciate the “above and beyond” help we received!
