OFFICER RECOGNITION

Officer Patrick Feldman received an Officer Recognition Submission via Highland Heights Police Website from Mallery. She said, “Thank you soo much to Officer Feldman for helping me today after an accident in front of the station. I was very shook and he truly made sure I was okay and went above and beyond to drop me off around the corner after my car was towed in freezing temps. He did an excellent job making sure we were safe on top of helping the tow truck and blocked traffic. Excellent work! Again, thank you so soo much!”.

TRAINING

All officers and clerk were certified/recertified on the Automated External Defibrillator. The AED was donated to the police department by Firehouse Subs and is used to send electrical pulses to the heart in the case it stops beating.

All officers and clerk were certified/recertified on CPR and First Aid.

Officers Completed Monthly Training Emergency Vehicle Operation/Pursuit

*Officer Brady Buemi resigned from Highland Heights Police after almost 18 years of service. He is pursuing a career in the private sector. We wish him all the best!
