OFFICER RECOGNITION

Jeanne, a Highland Heights Resident, sent an Officer Recognition on 4/7/2021 through our website regarding Lieutenant Nick Love and Officer Geoff Lucas

Hi Nick and Geoff,
I wanted to thank you for meeting me at my house when the alarm went off.

Nick-I truly appreciate you walking through and making sure it was, in fact, a false alarm.

Geoff-thank you so very much for walking around the house and making sure all the windows were secure. With Chuck in the hospital, it put my mind at rest that the house was safe.

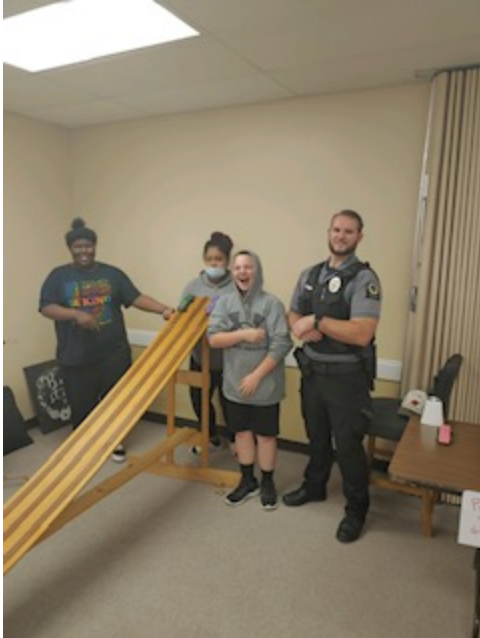

With much appreciation,
Jeanne

Virgil sent an Officer Recognition on 4/7/2021 through our website regarding Officer Zach Vance

Our families would like to thank officer Zachary Vance for his courteous and polite manner in the way he handled himself on April 4, 2021 around 8:30 p.m.. We had a medical emergency with my brother-in-law, tried to use their landline phone to call 911 but was unable to communicate with county dispatch, Officer Vance responded to our aid, Officer Vance communicated with dispatch for the life squad, Officer Vance made sure that he stayed at the residence till the squad was on the scene and took over, Thank You Officer Zachary Vance for going above and beyond the call of duty to make sure my brother-in-law received the medical care that he needed. Thank you,
Virgil
