S.I.R.T. SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS RESPONSE TEAM

On 3/16/22 Newport Police requested The Special Investigation Response Team respond to the 700 block on Ann St where two victims were found inside a house deceased. The initial response included 13 officers from Campbell County Police, Alexandria Police, Cold Spring Police, Highland Heights Police, Wilder Police, Dayton Police and Fort Thomas Police Departments. The SIRT Team was on the scene for over 13 hours where the scene was photographed, FARO Scans were done, evidence was collected and processed. The SIRT Team was able to reconstruct the double homicide scene, determine what item was used as a weapon and use a chemical agent to prove the suspect had cleaned up on the scene. Over the next few days, the Team members completed reports and additional evidence was processed. Newport Police Detectives charged Eric Lightfoot with two counts of Murder.

On 3/27/22 Wilder Police requested The Special Investigation Response Team respond to Bobby Mackey's where three people had been shot after a fight in the parking lot. The initial response included 6 officers from Campbell County Police, Wilder Police, Fort Thomas Police and Highland Heights Police Departments. The SIRT Team was on scene for over 8 hours where the scene was photographed, FARO Scans were done, evidence was collected and processed. Over the next few days, the Team assisted with searching vehicles and each officers completed individual reports. Wilder Police Detectives are still working to present criminal charges as all parties are claiming self-defense for the shooting.
